Dear Prospective Police Candidate,

We appreciate your interest in employment in a career with the Hanahan Police Department. Upon submission, your application will be reviewed and considered along with other applications for the number of vacancies we must fill. As an equal opportunity employer, it is the policy of the Hanahan Police Department to only hire qualified candidates who are best suited for employment with our agency without regard to race, sex, religious affiliation, or any other unlawful discriminator(s). It is impossible to project the probability that you will or will not be considered for employment; however, the employment process is explained within this application.

There are no guarantees that any steps beyond preliminary review of your application packet will occur. From application to employment through all of the steps can take from one to six months depending largely on the department’s status of hiring, the scheduling of testing, and the applicant’s particular background. You will be contacted personally by a background investigator if you are considered beyond preliminary review of your application. Otherwise, you will be notified in writing by the City’s Human Resource Director or the hiring officer of the Hanahan Police Department if you are not considered or disqualified. Please feel free to call me with any questions that you may have regarding our current status in hiring, anticipated vacancies, or the status of your application. In accordance with City policy, your application will remain active for six months unless you are rejected or disqualified. After six months, you must reapply if you wish further consideration.

Please complete the application as accurately and completely as possible, especially concerning past employers and reference information (addresses, telephone numbers, etc.). Questionnaires are mailed to any references, current and past employers you indicate in your application; therefore, correct addresses are critical. The department accepts applications for certified positions (police officer, communications officers, etc.) on a continual basis. Completed applications can be turned into the front desk of the Police Department, which is open 24 hours a day. Completed applications may also be mailed to the department at 1255 Yeamans Hall Road, Hanahan, South Carolina 29410-2744. Make sure to mark them to the attention of the Recruitment Unit.

Best Wishes,
