Code of Laws, Title 1, Chapter 23](#), section 350.

1) Approve

The Commission may approve a matter as submitted.

2) Approval with conditions

The Commission may approve a matter with conditions. The conditions should be clearly and distinctly enumerated and, when applicable, must include a timeframe for compliance.

3) Deferral Request by the Applicant

Parties filing appeals or applications may, after the application has been advertised as part of a meeting's agenda, request that the application be deferred. A request for deferral must be made in writing, signed (or sent via electronic mail) by the applicant or agent, and must specify an extraordinary and compelling reason for the deferral. The Commission must vote to approve or deny the request for deferral. Without an extraordinary and compelling reason, only one deferral shall be permitted. The deferred item shall be placed on the agenda of the next regular meeting. An item may only be deferred one time.

Matters deferred that are not finalized after a period of six months shall be deemed terminated and become null and void. Resubmittal of terminated requests shall be processed as a new application with all prescribed fees and other requirements.

4) Deferral by the Commission

An application may be deferred by the Commission upon its own motion. Deferred requests are not considered approved, and the request must be resubmitted to the Commission for review. An item may only be deferred one time.

The Commission may defer the final disposition of a matter to a subcommittee of the Commission or to staff by a majority vote of the members present at the hearing and qualified to vote. Matters deferred to a subcommittee or staff that are not finalized after a period of six months shall be deferred back to the Commission and placed on the next meeting's agenda.

5) Denial

Matters before the Commission for final disposition that are denied shall not be resubmitted for a period of twelve months, regardless of change(s) in ownership per Zoning Ordinance Section 2.9.1 and Land Development Ordinance Section 1.6(C). Any person aggrieved from the actions of the City Planner or other administrative official may appeal to the appropriate appellate body pursuant to S.C. Code of Laws, Title 6, Chapter 29.

6) Continuance by the Applicant

Parties filing applications may, upon a showing of good cause, request that the application be continued for a specified amount of time. A request for a continuance must be made in writing, signed (or sent via electronic mail) by the applicant or agent, and must specify a reason for the continuance. Upon its own motion, the Commission may either approve the request for a continuance or proceed to hear the request. Without an extraordinary and compelling reason, only one such continuance shall be permitted. If a decision has not been rendered within the specified timeframe, the original request will be placed on the next meeting agenda to be heard, and the applicant will be notified of the date and time of the hearing.

7) Withdrawal

A request may be withdrawn by the applicant or designee upon written notice (or sent via electronic mail) delivered to the Secretary prior to action by the Commission. Applications withdrawn by the applicant shall be considered a termination of the application. Resubmissions shall be processed as a new application with all prescribed fees and other submittal requirements met.

10. Voting

All eligible Commission members present are expected to vote. A Commission member absent at a previous review of a request is eligible to vote on subsequent review of the same request. Voting shall be done by Roll call. Voting shall be by voice, except where specifically outlined in the Hanahan Code of Ordinances. An abstention from a vote or failure of a member to vote shall be considered a nonvote. Recusals are only allowed permitted in accordance with S.C. Code Ann. § 8-13-700.

Any member recusing themselves from voting on a matter shall prepare a written statement describing the matter requiring action or decisions and the nature of his potential conflict of interest with respect to the action or decision. Commission members not present may not vote.

Applications containing multiple requests may be addressed by separate votes of the Commission.

A. Tie votes

In the event of a tie vote on any given motion, the Commission shall endeavor to either approve or disapprove an applicant's request through subsequent motions and votes. If, after at least one additional attempt, the board remains deadlocked as determined by the Chair or designee, no further motions are necessary, no final decision has been made, and the matter is unresolved.

The applicant may then return at a subsequent meeting for further consideration of the relief requested. Since no final decision has been rendered, a return will not be considered a rehearing; rather, it will be considered a new hearing. All Commission members, including those that had not participated in the original hearing, may participate in the new hearing. Those that previously participated must do so with an open mind to the new proceedings. Any member prejudiced otherwise shall state so on the record and must not participate.
